

05. 11. 2014.

Annual Progress and Steering Committee Meeting Agenda

Arriving

Welcome by Prof. András Dinnyés, coordinator

WP1: Generation and characterization of rabbit iPS cells, differentiation potential, chimeric progeny production

- Progress of the third year
- Next steps until the end of the projects
- Deliverables of the second reporting periods

WP2: Generation and characterization of pig iPS cells and their differentiation

- Progress of the third year
- Next steps until the end of the projects
- Deliverables of the second reporting periods

WP3: Training, ethics, dissemination and management

- Progress report documents (scientific summary, publications)
- Recruitment and secondment schedule: 6,5 months secondment from UU to BIOT
- Schedule of the complementary trainings (D3.6 Ethics complementary training), Plan: Sept-Oct 2015, Hungary
- One-day workshop “Animal models of iPS cell differentiation” with 4 external speakers and 4 speakers from the AniStem beneficiary laboratories and with a target of 50 researchers attending. Plan: Sept-Oct 2015. Southampton, UK or Godollo, HU.